

Creation - sequencing

Can you remember what God did each day?
Put the days in the right order on the top line and what happened each day on the line underneath.

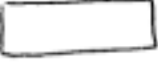

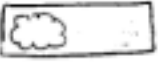

Day 4	Day 6	Day 1	Day 7	Day 3	Day 5	Day 2
-------	-------	-------	-------	-------	-------	-------

ON:

--	--	--	--	--	--	--

GOD:

--	--	--	--	--	--	--

made the sun, moon and stars 	made dark and light 	made animals and human beings 	rested 	made the sky 	made birds in the sky and fish in the sea 	made the earth, land and sea
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------