

EUCHARIST SQUARES

Catholic	Protestant	Eucharist
Mass	Communion	Wine
Bread	Passover	Lord's Supper
from the Latin ' communio ' meaning 'sharing together'. Protestant churches use this term.	It is believed the word 'mass' is a derivation of the Hebrew ' matzah ' or unleavened bread, as the earliest Christians were Jews. The Catholic term.	From the Greek ' eucharistia ' meaning 'thanksgiving'. When Jesus broke the bread he gave thanks. Catholic and Protestant churches use this term.
Blood of Christ	Body of Christ	Last Supper

Catholic	Protestant	Eucharist
Mass	Communion	Wine
Bread	Passover	Lord's Supper
from the Latin ' communio ' meaning 'sharing together'. Protestant churches use this term.	It is believed the word 'mass' is a derivation of the Hebrew ' matzah ' or unleavened bread, as the earliest Christians were Jews. The Catholic term.	From the Greek ' eucharistia ' meaning 'thanksgiving'. When Jesus broke the bread he gave thanks for it. Catholic and Protestant churches use this term.
Blood of Christ	Body of Christ	Last Supper

